Andrew David Naselli (PhD Bob Jones University; PhD Trinity Evangelical Divinity School) is associate professor of New Testament and theology at Bethlehem College Seminary in Minneapolis Minnesota and an elder of Bethlehem Baptist Church. Book From Typology to doxology lyrics 1610977696 Paul intends Romans 11:34-35 as a typological fulfillment of Isaiah 40:13 and Job 41:3a in light of the larger context of those OT books? I hadn't ever considered it before but I totally buy it. From Typology to doxologyxxx What is the context of these Old Testament passages? How are they used in other Jewish literature? What is Paul's hermeneutical warrant for using them in Romans 11? What theological use does Paul make of them? How if at all does their use in Romans 11 contribute to the broader discussion on the use of the Old Testament in the New? In addressing these questions this book reveals a remarkable typological connection that climaxes in the doxology of Romans 11:33-36 exalting God's incomprehensibility wisdom mercy grace patience independence and sovereignty. From Typology to doxologyxi
