

Hot Down Under Bundle 3 By Kylie Scott Let's face it you won't be reading these because you are in search of great literature but if you want to have fun reading a racy story this is your book! This was my first encounter with some of these authors but I found each story entertaining and will look up the authors to see what else they have written. 5 stars 9781760081287 I jumped at the chance to read this book for two reasons the first was Kylie Scott contributed to it and having read her book Lick recently I wanted to see what else she could do the second again was Kylie Scott's story was set after a zombie plague had wiped most of the population out and I am partial to that sort of thing actually there is a third reason - see the cover above! So this is a collection of four stories all ranging from steamy to on fire on the hotness scale! All of them are set in Australia if you didn't guess from the title and all of them feature women facing different situations. The first story Room With a View well there isn't much of a view unless you count plague ridden zombies lying face down in a swimming pool but this story features Natalie and the gorgeous young man who comes to her rescue. The second is A Sporting Chance this is set in the dusty outback and features the incredibly broke Jane a bartender at the local pub who is down on her luck her boss Luka an Eastern European is hot and flirty but she refuses his offer of help she instead turns to her racing toad Germaine to win her some cash! Things of course never go to plan and Jane to her horror loses a bet against Luka which places her under his beck and call for 24 hours. The third is A Real Online Fantasy Caitlyn has been busy online with her online crush spilling each others secrets and acting out their fantasies but when she meets her crush in the flesh will they feel the same? I enjoyed this as of course the uncertainty of will the crush turn up will he be hot or a 60 year old beer bellied baldy? Read to find out. The fourth story is Business with Pleasure now this one tested me a little bit Lottie Williams is an artist desperate to get her artwork in to an exhibition but before that happens she needs to get past the curators James and Magda who ooze sex and charm this has a threesome in it which I have never read before blushes so that was quite an eye opener God I sound like a prude! Ahem anyway this in my opinion would be the hottest of the four! It is a good read but to be honest the one I enjoyed the most was the dystopian but being a huge fan of the genre it was a given saying that the others are well written and they made me long to revisit the wonderful country of Australia it's been too long Brisbane! I award Hot Down Under Bundle 3 - 3 out of 5 9781760081287 Book Summary - Published by - Momentum Publish Date - 27th May 2014 Pages - 160 My Rating - 3 Stars Review - I'm going to start off by saying I love Kylie Scott. I loved her back when my friend Lauren first threw her novella A Room With A View my way in 2012 and screamed at me to read it and then when she started with her Stage Dive series I loved her even more. I enjoyed this book of hers a lot more than I did the first one Flesh (less than how much I enjoyed Skin though) but having said that I would've liked a little more zombie action in the mix but since I'd already read this one it was kind of a given that I'd give it a decent star rating. Dust mud rivers and lakes and everything in between and as a girl from rural NSW yes I might be a little biased in that assumption but when talking to my friends overseas that's what they think of too so I know for a fact that if they were reading this bundle they would be severely disappointed at the lack of farms stations and sexy men in jeans and work clothes brushing the sweat from their Akubra wearing heads. Great quick read and as one chatter who took it to RL =) I can verify all those feelings LOL 4 Stars Business with Pleasure - Keziah Hill Lottie finds more than a place to exhibit her artwork when she meets with the owners of Carve the Wind. 3 Stars just because I'm not a fan of FFM sorry =/ I prefer more men than women in the ratio =) 9781760081287 I'd give these stories 3 stars I'd love to be able to give it more because one of my favorite authors has a story in this book but even hers wasn't what I expected. Or has he? Can he make it past the infected to reach her? And what will it mean if he does? Rhyll Biest's A Sporting Chance In the outback town of Mount Tully sexy bartender Jane Hood calls the shots. Cate Ellink's A Real Online Fantasy Can an online fantasy ever become real? When Caitlyn has the opportunity to meet her online crush in the flesh will she be bold enough to act out her deepest fantasies or will she forever be hiding behind her computer screen? Keziah Hill's Business with Pleasure For artist Lottie Williams entering her sculpture in the European exhibition is the culmination of her career. Will she confuse business with pleasure? Hot Down Under Bundle 3 I received this copy in exchange for an honest reviewWow oh wow Here we have 4 seriously hot and sexy reads by 4 authors. Her story was incredibly short but if you are like me -- heavily invested in her zombie apocalypse series and anxiously awaiting another full length book -- than this will make you happy anyway! Quick and dirty but Scott still managed to pack in action and sexy times,

This fun bundle of hot sexy stories is just what you need when you are looking for something spicy before bed: The stories range from sizzle to steam and each tells a very different tale: I love dystopian stories and this one sets the scene nicely for Kylie's story Flesh which explores this world in more detail. It might be my morbid fascination with Zombies and apocalypses of all kinds or it could be the way that she threw in a romance to make something ugly beautiful, Nope what gave this bundle it's 3 star rating was the rest of the bundle, I had to keep on checking the title to make sure I was reading the right thing. Ho Down Under makes me think of the outback the bush hot and sweaty stockmen, The stories weren't anything special or uniquely Australian you could've transplanted them straight into the United States or heck even New Zealand: The stories lacked the spark and sizzle that I was expecting and all in all I didn't enjoy them all that much: I know Kylie Scott is the selling point in this bundle but even with her previously released novella being included it is the only thing that saves this bundle in my eyes: 9781760081287 Four short stories fitting for a summer read hot and smutty, Room with a View - Kylie Scott Natalie survived the zombie apocalypse only to find herself alone - until Angus came along, They find comfort in each other through the walkie talkie but then he disappears. Will she stay alone til she dies? Quick read and smutty fluff in a survival mode definitely will read more from this world/author, 4 Stars A Sporting Chance - Rhyll Biest Jane's had feelings for her boss at the bar for a while but resisted them. Luka's been teasing her but when she needs help he's there not taking no for an answer, 4 Stars A Real Online Fantasy - Cate Ellink After a year of foreplay online Condamine and Esquire are about to meet IRL: Butterflies in the stomache doubt and fears disappear as soon as they meet and the smutty fluff they've talked about will soon take place. James and Magda has had their sights on Lottie for a while now can they wait another month for their chance to build something more? Smutty fluff and a threesome with ffm. Cate Ellink's A Real Online Fantasy was probably the best of the stories in my opinion. The others while entertaining didn't really capture my attention and make me want to read more: 9781760081287 Kylie Scott's Room With a View Natalie has watched as the zombie plague devastated civilization: Gorgeous Angus has been a miracle appearing like Romeo from the pool area and throwing supplies up to her balcony, Until she meets the sexy curators James and Magda who want something else from her: This is a brilliant collection of reads is you are looking for something hot and steamy, You will not be disappointed 9781760081287 I sought this book out for Kylie Scott's contribution to the collection in particular, The fourth story isn't to my taste but its good to have a mix in anthologies/bundles. 9781760081287 Kylie is a New York Times Wall Street Journal and USA Today best selling Audie Award winning Romance author. Zombies to the board room this book has it all. I give this one 3. Quick read smutty fluff and perseverance in a great combo. But now he has deserted her . Until she meets Luka the man who owns the pub . 9781760081287 I love this bundle. All four stories have a great Aussie flavour.
