Thelma Zirkelbach was born and raised in Austin Texas. Okay she had a ways to go but her goal was clear. It would however take several decades to realize that goal. As a child she loved pretending. Her other favorite thing to do was read. She still does. Okay she had a ways to go but her goal was clear. It would however take several decades to realize that goal. As a child she loved pretending. Her other favorite thing to do was read. She still does. It's a choice she never regretted. Within a year she was back in school. She had become June Cleaver. Divorce brought that phase of her life to a close. She'd moved from Leave it to Beaver to The Brady Bunch. Finally on day she got the call. She'd sold her first book. But the sacrifice has been worth it. She's fulfilled her lifelong dream of being a writer. The Great Chili Caper
